Small Company Celebrates Customers in Big Way Barrington Publicity Firm Hosts Appreciation Celebration for Clients, Business Associates, Friends and Family

Barrington, NH - Bisson Barcelona, a high visibility public relations firm recently celebrated its fifth year anniversary. The Barrington-based company works with authors and business professionals to develop and manage their image.

In honor of the five-year milestone, Bisson Barcelona held a customer appreciation celebration at Newcastle Beach Park. Invited guests received invitation beach balls which arrived in a small box and included a card that read simply, "blow me up!" The event was to recognize people who had played an integral part in the growth of the company over the first five years. The catered affair was attended by media, clients, business associates, friends and family.

"We wanted to personally thank and recognize those who had contributed to our success," said Traci Bisson, owner. Bisson fought back tears of appreciation in a speech she gave singling out key individuals whose support of the company deserved additional recognition.
